BREAKFAST

Ministerstvo životního prostředí

The CEO business breakfast will focus on how the rising ESG legislation aimed at businesses is changing the current status quo and shaping the new business landscape. How can businesses emerge stronger, and what lessons are there to be learned? How is sustainable thinking driving a company's adaptability and resilience?

Join us for a CEO business breakfast that aims to facilitate a closed roundtable of thought-provoking discussions on current ESG and sustainability topics with fellow leaders of corporate businesses.
